Advanced Technology Commercial Battery Range

Enirgi Power Storage's range of commercial batteries are designed to deal with the constant stresses of long haul conditions, high operating temperatures and excessive vibration.

The integrated computer designed and reinforced container is built to persevere through the toughest conditions. X-Frame™ technology employs a stamped and fully framed grid for better power flow and longer battery life. Grid protection stabilises the active material eliminating early battery failure.

As Your Battery Specialists we are always on hand to assist. Our wide product range means we can build a power storage solution to help you minimise downtime and maximise productivity.
