Advanced Technology Automotive Battery Range

The Enirgi Power Storage automotive range represents the very best in everyday starting battery technology. All of our products are maintenance free and engineered to provide stable power and excellent longevity.

Built for maximum flow of current, the advanced grid design enables faster recharge acceptance and optimal conductivity. X-Frame™ technology employs a full framed grid design which prevents grid growth, maximising the life of the battery. Plate durability is increased by using nonwoven tissue which reduces the loss of active material. A sealed double lid, advanced centre lug technology and rugged construction ensure long lasting reliability.

Rely on Your Battery Specialists to provide you with the perfect product for Australia's demanding driving conditions.
